Below are a series of semi-serious questions designed to help us remember you when we are choosing new members. Answer seriously or use your imagination. Remember... nothing you write will be held against you. Life is short — have fun.

- 1 Why did you apply to Pierce Co-op as opposed to lower forms of housing such as apartments, domes, tents, or condos?

- 2 Did the amazingly low cost of living at Pierce Co-op have anything whatsoever to do with your decision to apply here? [Please be completely honest.]

- 3 How did you hear about Pierce Co-op?
Friends, enemies, Student Housing, bulletin boards, bathroom walls, People magazine, etc.?

- 4 Are you willing to donate all of your waking hours [and more] to special projects or workdays designed to enhance and perhaps improve the already immaculate condition of the house?

- 5 Some skills, such as bread baking, plumbing, and the ability to get along with others at 7am during finals week are very important to co-op living. Please list these or similar skills or related talents that you possess which might benefit the house.

- 6 Please tell us about your social life. This includes special interests, hobbies, sports, and any other interesting bits of information that will make you stand out among the hundreds of applications we have to choose from.

- 7 What organizations or groups do you belong to or are active/passive in? [this is optional; there is no pressure on you at all to tell us about your membership in Youth for Nixon or any affiliation with the Greek system.]

- 8 What does the word co-op mean to you or, if your answer will be more than five pages long, what do you expect life to be like in this particular household? [Clue: Household might be a key part of your answer.]

- 9 What kinds of ties would you like to form with the other members of the household? [Close friendships, family-like, barely acquaintances, complete strangers, etc.]
